ANNEX X
TRADE IN WINE AND SPIRITS<sup>1</sup>

PROPUESTA UE (Rev. 19 octubre de 2017)	PROPUESTA MERCOSUR
Article 1 Scope and coverage 1. This Section applies to wine products and spirits falling under headings 2204, 2205 and 2208 of the International Convention on the Harmonised Commodity, Description and Coding System, hereafter referred to as the ‘Harmonised System’, done at Brussels on 14 June 1983. 2. Vine varieties that may be used in wines imported from a Party and marketed in the territory of the other Party are varieties of plants of Vitis vinifera and hybrids of Vitis vinifera without prejudice to any more restrictive legislation which a Party may have in respect of wine produced on its territory. The import and marketing of wine imported from a Party and placed on the market in the other Party obtained from the varieties Clinton, Herbemont, Isabelle, Jacquez, Noah and Othello shall be prohibited.	Article 1 Scope and coverage This Section applies to wine products and spirits produced in Mercosur and the European Union falling under headings 2204, 2205 and 2208 of the International Convention on the Harmonised Commodity, Description and Coding System, hereafter referred to as the ‘Harmonised System’, done at Brussels on 14 June 1983.
Article 2 Winemaking practices 1. The European Union shall authorise the importation and marketing in its territory for human consumption of wine products originating in Mercosur and produced in accordance with: (a) product definitions authorised in Mercosur by laws and regulations referred to in Part A(a) of Annex X to this Section, (b) oenological practices and restrictions authorised in Mercosur under laws and regulations referred to in Part A(b) of Annex X to this Section or otherwise approved for use in wines for export by the competent authority, in so far as they are recommended and published by the International Organisation of the Vine and	Article 2 Wine definitions and oenological practices 1. The Parties shall make their best efforts to adopt definitions and oenological practices for wine products recommended and published by the International Organization of the Vine and Wine, hereafter referred to as the “OIV”. 2. The Parties shall authorize the importation and sale for consumption of wines produced in the other Party, if they have been made, according to: a) The definitions of products established in each Party, which are in accordance with the relevant OIV standard; b) The oenological practices established in each Party, in accordance with the relevant

1 For the purposes of the negotiation of this chapter, the term “Parties” should be understood, on the side of Mercosur, as each of the individual Mercosur Signatory Member State and on the EU side, the Party should be understood as the EU. In case commitments are undertaken by Mercosur, Mercosur will be expressly mentioned. This is without prejudice to the horizontal discussion on the definition of the Parties. The text will be revised in light of the outcome of the discussion of the Institutional group.

Wine, hereafter referred to as the “OIV”, and (c) additional oenological practices and restrictions jointly accepted by the Parties under the conditions provided for in Part A(c) of Annex X to this Section. 2. Mercosur shall authorise the importation and marketing in its territory for human consumption of wine products originating in the European Union and produced in accordance with: (a) product definitions authorised in the European Union by laws and regulations referred to in Part B(a) of Annex X to this Section, (b) oenological practices and restrictions authorised in the European Union by laws and regulations referred to in Part B(b) of Annex X to this Section, in so far as they are recommended and published by the OIV, and (c) additional oenological practices and restrictions jointly accepted by the Parties under the conditions provided for in Part B(c) of Annex X to this Section. 3. The addition of alcohol or spirits is excluded for all wines other than liqueur wines, to which only alcohol of vine origin or grape spirit may be added. 4. The Parties may jointly decide, by way of amendment to Annex X, to add, delete or modify references to product definitions, and oenological practices and restrictions. Such decisions shall be adopted by consensus in the (Sub)Committee referred to in Article 7.	OIV standard; and c) the definitions and oenological practices established in each Party that are otherwise than in accordance with the relevant OIV standard existing at the time of the signature of this Agreement, provided that they are notified to the other Party within XXX months of entry into force of the Agreement. 3. When a Party approves new definitions or oenological practices it shall promptly notify the other Party together with a full explanation of the rationale behind the measure. The other Party has XXX days from receipt of the notification to comment or refuse to recognize the measure adopted. Failure to comment or refuse recognition shall be deemed to constitute recognition of the relevant definitions or oenological practices. The other Party shall then allow the importation and sale for consumption of wines produced according to those definitions or oenological practices.
Article 3 Labelling of wines and spirits 1. No Party shall require any of the following dates or their equivalent to appear on the container, label, or packaging of a wine or spirit: a. date of packaging; b. date of bottling; c. date of production or manufacture; d. date of expiration, use by date, use or consume by date, expire by date; e. date of minimum durability best-by-date, best quality before date; or f. sell-by-date. A Party may require the display of a date of minimum durability on products that on account of the addition of perishable ingredients could have a shorter date of minimum durability than would normally be expected by the consumer. 2. No Party shall require translations of trademarks, brand names or geographical indications to appear on wines and spirits containers, labels, or packaging.	Article 3 Labelling of wines and spirits 1. No Party shall require translations of trademarks, brand names or geographical indications to appear on wines and spirit containers, labels, or packaging.

3. Each Party shall permit mandatory information, including translations, to be displayed on a supplementary label affixed to a wine and spirit container. Supplementary labels may be affixed to an imported container of wines and spirits after importation but prior to the product being offered for sale in the Party's territory, provided that the mandatory information of the original label is fully and accurately reflected. 4. The use of identification lot codes shall be permitted and, when present, preserved from deletion. 5. No Party shall apply a measure to wines and spirits that were marketed in the Party's territory prior to the date on which the measure entered into force, except under exceptional circumstances. 6. Use of drawings, figures, illustrations shall be permitted on bottles. They shall not replace mandatory labelling information and shall not mislead the consumer as to the real characteristics and composition of the wines and spirit. 7. Wine and spirits shall not be subject to allergen labelling with regard to allergens which have been used in the manufacture and preparation of the wine or spirit and are not present in the final product. 8. For trade in wine between the Parties, a wine originating in the Community may be described or presented in Mercosur with an indication of the product type as specified in Annex X Part C. 9. The following names are protected with regard to wines and spirits, in conformity with the Paris Convention: (a) the name of a Member State of the European Union for wines and spirits originating in the Member State concerned, (b) [to be completed if needed]	4.
